OLDEST LOCAL STORE TO CHANGE HANDS

The close of business of Bryánt's IGA Food Store on Saturday, Jan. 27, will mark the end of Bethel's oldest family-owned business. On that date Richard Bryant will sever his connection with the market.

Founded by his great grandfather, Chauncey Bryant, in 1876, the establishment has been successively controlled by William, Myron and Richard Bryant, Assuming control of the store in 1957, Richard continued the business at the corner of Main and High Street until 1964 when their new Main Street supermarket was opened in June.

Affiliated with I. G. A. since 1929, it is understood that the on premises management of the H. Scheibler has submitted to the store will be in control of a Milliken - Tomlinson representative until the new proprietor assumes control about mid-Febru-

BUSY WITH CRAFTS

Eleven children, members of the Special Education Class at Mr. and Mrs. Asher Runnels West Bethel have been busy with lumber companies, mills, the local merchants and friends.

This is the fifth year for the children of the area to attend a class where special attention is given to each individual. An attempt is made to meet his needs and interests with programmed materials which are designed for special children and modern audio visual equipment to help make their work more meaning-

The children and teacher would welcome any interested or inquisitive visitor, Come and see what you think,
